Year 3	Abdullah Tola	The class adults have been impressed by Abdullah's hard work, determination to always do his best work and his ability to keep trying hard, even when he finds things tricky. Abdullah is a kind, caring, gentle and sensible member of class. He always follows the school rules of being 'Ready, Respectful and Safe'. Keep up the great work, Abdullah!
	Oscar Robins	Oscar has had an amazing term! He has shown others that never giving up and being persistent can achieve anything! He has consistently put 100% effort into every lesson. He has shone brightly and gained so much confidence at school which has been wonderful to see. He has especially excelled in maths and consistently challenges himself to be the best that he can be. He is polite, respectful and a wonderful member of the class. We are so proud of his achievements and hope that he can continue for the rest of year 3. Thank you for all of your hard-work Oscar. Keep up the great effort.
	Sreemaan Kaluvai	Sreemaan joined Elmbridge a few months into Year 3 and since the very first day he joined, he has been an absolute joy to teach. His enthusiasm for learning is truly infectious and he approaches each day with the biggest smile on his face. Sreemaan always strives to do his very best and shows a fantastic attitude towards all aspects of his learning. He particularly shines in maths, where he eagerly seeks out extra challenges and tackles them with such confidence and determination. Thank you so much for all your hard work, Sreemaan. We are so proud of you :)

Year 4	Thea Saunders	Thea has really impressed all of the adults who have worked with her this term. It has been wonderful to see her develop both personally and academically and see her maturity really shine through. Thea has made great progress across all subjects, but particularly English and maths due to her perseverance and determination to improve. She is a wonderful role model and can often be heard encouraging and helping others. You are such a super star Thea. Thank you for working so hard and always with such a lovely smile!
	Louie Chau	We are thrilled to award the cup this term to Louie. Louie has worked incredibly hard across all subjects, demonstrating a commitment to his learning. He is consistently kind and considerate to his classmates, making our classroom a welcoming place. His handwriting and presentation are always beautiful, reflecting his attention to detail. Louie listens attentively in class, and we can always rely on him to be ready, respectful, and safe. He has settled into Elmbridge School with such ease, and it is clear that he is always pushing himself to achieve his full potential. Louie, you are a pleasure to teach—well done!
	Darcie Tardivo	Darcie has shown remarkable dedication this year; she approaches every task with quiet determination and a genuine desire to do well. Her polite, kind, and gentle nature makes her a joy to have in the classroom, and her caring attitude towards others sets a wonderful example for her peers. Darcie takes real pride in her work, always striving to produce her best, and perseveres even when things are difficult. I hope she continues to develop the self-belief she deserves because everyone around her can clearly see just how capable she is.

Year 5	Henry Baldrey	Henry has been an excellent role model in Y5, consistently demonstrating a positive attitude to all areas of his learning. He is a kind and supportive friend who works well with others, both in and out of class. Henry's strong desire to achieve his best, combined with his ability to listen carefully and act on advice, has helped him make great progress so far. It is a pleasure to have Henry in our class and he truly deserves this recognition.
	Zidan Parekh	Zidan, you have worked incredibly hard this term, especially in your maths and I am really proud of how clearly you explain your thinking - I love how you always start your Twist it's with 'Coco is incorrect (as usual)'. In DT this term, you showed great focus and developed an excellent blanket stitch technique, achieving a wonderful stitched plush toy. When creating our puppets in Art, you took time on your design and produced an end result that Paul Klee would have been proud of. I could talk about every subject and how well your confidence has grown, so just keep on working hard, being happy and talking about the things you enjoy! Well done Zidan!
	Charlotte Cross	Lottie has had a superb year so far in Year 5. She always works hard and consistently gives 100% effort in everything she does. Her progress in English is clear to see, particularly in her spelling, where she has shown real determination and improvement. Her confidence is growing across all subjects, and she is now able to ask thoughtful questions to deepen and extend her learning. Lottie demonstrates excellent perseverance and approaches challenges with a positive attitude. She is a fantastic role model for her classmates, always following our school rules of being Ready, Respectful and Safe. Well done, Lottie—keep up the brilliant work.

Year 6	Belle King	Belle has consistently gone above and beyond in all areas of school life this term. She demonstrates a positive attitude and excellent effort in everything that she does. Her love of music is evident, particularly when singing. Belle is a kind and thoughtful member of the class who always shows care and respect towards others. Her helpful nature and willingness to support both her peers and staff makes her a wonderful member of our school community. Belle, it has been a pleasure to teach you and I look forward to seeing what else you can achieve this year.
	Hadleigh-Rae West	Hadleigh-Rae has been an absolute joy to teach this year! Her positive can-do attitude is infectious and inspires others to try their best. Regardless of the subject, Hadleigh-Rae will always go above and beyond expectation, contributing to lessons and producing beautiful pieces of work. She is kind and respectful and is always happy to help. Her dedication to Elmbridge is clear; she takes her responsibility as a house captain very seriously! You have achieved so much this year Hadleigh-Rae - keep it up. We are all so proud of you.
	Reggie Johnson	Reggie has shown real determination this year, always working hard even when he finds things tricky or challenging. Instead of giving up, he keeps trying, showing resilience and a positive attitude to his learning, asking for help when needed. He behaves well in class, setting a good example for others with his kindness, respect, and willingness to help those around him. I have seen a real change from how Reggie started year 6 to where he is now and I'm really impressed. I hope this continues through his last few months at Elmbridge and into year 7. Well done Reggie!
