

Summer Term 6

- Superstar Awards

Year Group	Name	Recognition
Reception	Lily Brown	Lily is a superstar every day! She takes her time with every activity and makes sure it is done to the best of her ability. She has worked really hard on her writing and is now doing it independently. Lily is a wonderful friend to others, by being so kind and caring. We are so lucky to have you in Badgers class. Keep up the super effort in Year 1. Well done, Lily!
	Nova Meredith-Gayle	Nova is a wonderfully kind, caring, helpful and hardworking member of Hedgehogs class. She does a fantastic job of following our school rules by being ready, respectful and safe every single day. She always works hard and tries her best in everything she does. Well done, Nova - you are a superstar and we are very proud of you.
	Arabella Wilding	Arabella is a consistently hard-working, respectful, kind member of Rabbits class. Throughout this year, she has dedicated herself to making sure she is ready, respectful and safe every single day. Arabella has continued to grow in confidence and it has been lovely to see her begin to believe in herself. Arabella has been a pleasure to teach this year and we will miss her very much. Keep shining, you superstar!

Year 1	Daisy Walker	Daisy has not only had a fantastic term, but an amazing year in class 1! She absolutely loves to learn and tries her very hardest with every job she completes! This term, she has been a particularly brilliant Artist and very whizzy mathematician. She frequently wows us with her skills in these areas! Keep up the great work Daisy, keep being fantastic!
	Charlie Hannis	Congratulations on receiving this award Charlie! Your friendly nature, polite manners and positive attitude have shone through this year. You treat everyone with kindness, face each challenge with a smile and set a wonderful example to everyone. Keep working hard Charlie, we are all very proud of you.
	Charlie Bradley Ward	Charlie has been a standout superstar this term. All the staff in Class 3 have noticed how much he has grown in resilience and maturity. It has been a pleasure to see the pride Charlie takes in setting a positive example for his peers, as well as helping both adults and other children. Charlie approaches each day with enthusiasm and kindness, and his hard work and positive attitude have made a real difference in the classroom. Thank you, Charlie, for a fantastic term and for all your hard work throughout the year.

Year 2	Shreyaan Anneth	Shreyaan has worked incredibly hard throughout the year and consistently gives 100% effort in everything he does. His dedication, determination and positive attitude are evident in all aspects of his work. He should be very proud of the year he has had!
	Felix Buttery	Felix has been a pleasure to teach and has continued to grow in confidence not just with his friends but also as a member of the class. He is a fantastic role model to others showing them how to be ready, respectful and safe. He has worked hard in all lessons and does not give up when things become difficult. Felix has the ability to cheer you up and never fails to let his bubbly personality and smile shine through. We will miss teaching him in Year 2 but wish him all the luck as he moves up into Year 3. Please keep up the hard work and continue to do yourself proud. Thank you Felix for a great year.
	Ruby Turner	What a fantastic year and term Ruby has had this year. She has been such a kind and thoughtful member of the class always willing to help others. We have been so impressed with her enthusiasm for learning and also the fact that she goes home and continues to research into topics we have covered in class. It is this dedication to her learning which has meant she is our summer star of the term. Well done Ruby this is well deserved.

Year 3	Theo Smallman	The Class 7 adults have been impressed by the way that Theo has embraced school life and grown as a learner throughout Year 3 but especially in Term 6. During the year, there have been tricky challenges but each time Theo has found new ways to tackle situations, normally with a smile on his face, and has used each challenge as an opportunity to grow. Theo should be proud of his achievements this year. We will miss Theo's fascinating facts and think that he is definitely ready to be an amazing learner in Year 4. Great work, Theo!
	Siena Edwards	Siena has had such a rollercoaster of a year. She has had to work past her challenges and shown incredible courage, bravery and strength to never give up. She has been a wonderful role-model for the class by always showing that she is ready to learn, respectful to everyone she meets and always offering to support others. She is compassionate, kind, attentive and an amazing young lady. Siena does have high expectations for herself and has been relentless to achieve those expectations of herself. She will be greatly missed and we wish her all of the best in year 4! Thank you for every moment of this year Siena, I will miss your wonderful smile in the morning and knowing I can count on you to laugh at my awful jokes.
	Isla Cosgrove	Isla has worked hard to develop her resilience in the classroom, and I have been impressed with the more positive attitude she brings to her learning. When she finds something difficult, she often reminds herself by saying, "It's okay, I just don't know it yet,". She has become much more willing to challenge herself and understands that making mistakes is an important part of learning. It has been fantastic to see her confidence grow, and I hope this resilience and belief in herself will continue as she moves into Year 4.

Year 4	Rose Stevenson	Rose is a respectful and thoughtful member of Class 10 who is always eager to contribute during lessons. She is a conscientious girl who consistently demonstrates excellent behaviour and a positive attitude towards her learning. She works hard, listens carefully, and always gives her best in everything she does. Her kindness, maturity, and willingness to do the right thing make her a pleasure to teach. Rose always shows that she is 'Ready, Respectful and Safe' and is certainly ready for the exciting times ahead of her in Year 5. Thank you Rose!
	Rowan Collins	Wow, Rowan! What a fantastic term you have had! We have been so impressed to see that you are now completing your homework regularly, that you are listening carefully in class and that you are making good progress with your swimming. Your positive attitude and hard work have really shone through this term and it has been wonderful to see. In addition, we have absolutely loved seeing you start to believe in yourself more. At the beginning of term, you felt worried about taking part in our charity assembly. You have now taken part in three presentations and were absolutely brilliant every single time! We are so proud of you! Keep up the awesome work.
	Eadie Martin-Mann	Eadie has had a brilliant end to Year 4 and thoroughly deserves to be recognised as Star of the Term. She has matured throughout the year and demonstrates a sensible, calm and responsible attitude in class. Her effort across the curriculum has been consistently strong and she can always be relied upon to give their best, listen carefully and complete tasks to a high standard. It has been lovely to see Eadie grow in confidence and become such a dependable member of the class. A fantastic achievement - well done!

Year 5	Jacob Brown	Jacob doesn't always find school life easy but he has shown huge qualities of perseverance and resilience this year. He is more independent and willing when completing writing tasks and he treats those around him with increasing care and consideration. Jacob has shown that he can reflect and take a mature approach when things do go wrong and this is admirable. He is also a skilled mathematician with an incredibly quick mind and a good ability to talk through his ideas.
	Isla Robinson	Isla, you should be incredibly proud of everything you have achieved this term. Your hard work and conscientious attitude have been a wonderful example to others. You always approach your work with care and determination, taking pride in being as precise as you can, and your willingness to do your very best never goes unnoticed. As you prepare for your move to France this summer, I wish you every happiness and success in this exciting new chapter. I know your new school will be very lucky to have such a hardworking, kind and dependable person. Good luck, Isla - you will be greatly missed!
	Zayn Gangat	Zayn has been an outstanding member of our class and a fantastic role model for both his classmates and the wider school. He consistently demonstrates our values of being ready, respectful and safe. His enthusiasm for learning is infectious, and his determination to improve is admirable. Zayn's kindness and support for others, combined with his ever-present smile, have made him an absolute pleasure to teach. Good luck in Year 6, Zayn! We know you will continue to shine.

Year 6	Ronnie Jones	Ronnie, what a year you have had! You have consistently tried your best in every lesson and produced work that you should be proud of. You have shown what it means to put yourself outside of your comfort zone and give your all to everything you do. Your effort, attitude and determination have shone through in every challenge you have taken on. It was fantastic to see you take on the role of Maurice in the play with such confidence and enthusiasm. You brought the character to life brilliantly and made everyone proud. As a role model for your peers, you lead by example with kindness, maturity and a positive attitude. You are always ready, respectful and safe, and you set a wonderful example for others each day. Well done for all you have achieved. Keep being you in Year 7!
	Phoenix Raymond	Phoenix has had the most fantastic year in year 6. His approach and attitude to learning has matured greatly; Myself and Mrs Toppin have found him an absolute delight to teach. He is kind and caring, often offering to help others; this has kept our classroom organised! In class, Phoenix will challenge himself to succeed and it has been a joy to witness. His role as stage hand in the production reflected his love of responsibility, ensuring it went smoothly. Phoenix, we are SO proud of you and all you have achieved this year! Keep it up next year 😊
	Jasmine Knight	Jasmine is a kind and hardworking student who approaches school life with a very positive attitude. She wants to do well in all that she does and consistently gives everything 100%, which is a real strength. Jasmine is a good friend to others and shows care and consideration in her relationships, making her a valued member of the class community. Her willingness to support others and set a positive example means she is increasingly seen as a role model by her peers and teachers. Throughout the year, she has become more resilient, which is an important quality as she continues to grow both socially and academically. She responds well to challenges and shows a determined attitude when things do not come easily. This perseverance, combined with her strong work ethic, means she is well placed to continue making excellent progress. Well done on an exceptional final year at Elmbridge, Jazzy!
