

Spring Term 5

- Superstar Awards

Year Group	Name	Recognition
Reception	Aadil Parekh	Aadil comes into school with a smile on his face everyday. He always follows our rules of being ready, respectful and safe making him an excellent role model to others. Aadil completes his rainbow challenges to the best of his ability every time. It has been great to see him become more independent and confident. Well done Aadil, keep up the fantastic effort!
	Archie Davies-Lydiard	For working so hard this term, especially on your phonics and writing. Archie has become increasingly enthusiastic about completing activities. He will try his best, with a smile on his face, even when things might be a little bit tricky. Well done, Archie. It has been lovely to see your self-confidence grow and we are very proud of you.
	Max Bastian-Darcy	Max is a kind, thoughtful, respectful boy who likes to follow the school rules. He takes pride in his work, and makes an extra effort to make sure all tasks are completed to the highest standard. It has been lovely to see Max's surge in confidence this term, as he has enjoyed sharing his ideas and eagerly speaking to myself and Ms Talbot. Keep believing in yourself, Max!

Year 1	Phoebe Lanciano-Newman	Phoebe has had such a great term! She has shown super listening , especially when we have asked her to come and do her jobs in the classroom. Phoebe has played such lovely games with her friends on the playground and now joins us much more quickly when it's time to line-up and have our snack. You make us smile every day Phoebe! Keep being wonderful you!
	Frieda Colson-Auld	Congratulations Frieda! You are such a hard working member of class 2, who is always ready, respectful and safe. You listen carefully to others and always show kindness to your friends. We have noticed the effort that you are making to be and do your absolute best. Well done!
	Hashim Rafiq	We are so pleased with the progress that Hashim has made this year in Class 3. He is hardworking, always tries his best and he has worked especially hard with his joined-up handwriting, which looks beautiful. Hashim is also a kind boy who has lots of friends and is a popular and sensible member of the class. Well done Hashim on a great term in Class 3!

Year Group	Name	Recognition
Year 2	Myles Lee	Myles has demonstrated fantastic resilience and perseverance in his learning and approach to school. He has been really trying to give everything a go to the best of his ability and approaches things with a smile. We have really seen his confidence shine through and we hope that this continues now throughout the rest of the year. Well done Myles!
	Lilly Hawthorne	Lilly has shown real improvement in her attitude to learning in all lessons. She is always following the school rules of being Ready, Respectful and Safe and is a pleasure to teach. Lilly is a positive role model to her friends and shows excellent manners. She has been working super hard to improve her handwriting and demonstrates these skills across all subjects. Well done. Keep up the good work Lilly.
	Lenny Atkinson	We have been so impressed with Lenny's hard work, focus, determination and resilience to improve in his learning this term. He has listened carefully to his teachers and practised, practised and practised to get better and better. What a fantastic role model! Well done Lenny.

Year Group	Name	Recognition
Year 3	Omar Mohammad	The Class 7 adults have been impressed by Omar's ability to ask interesting, curious and enquiring questions in all areas of the curriculum to develop his knowledge. We have loved watching Omar gain confidence to work with a range of new people in the class and respectfully listen to the opinions of other people during discussions. Keep up the great work Omar!
	Kingsley Wellington	Kingsley has shown a lot of effort with all aspects of his learning this term. He has gone the extra mile to ensure that his work is the best it can be. He has been resilient during tough times, contributed to class discussions and not been afraid to ask for help when he has needed it. He has even been able to show his lovely sense of humour. It has been fantastic to see Kingsley develop throughout the term and reach the potential that he is capable of. I hope that he continues to show his determination, hard work and to hear him laugh more for the remainder of year 3. Well done Kingsley, thank you for your hard work.
	Anaya Arslan	Anaya has worked incredibly hard this term to make positive choices and shown a determined, hardworking attitude. She has truly shone during our Art lessons, demonstrating a wonderful creative flair and enthusiasm for her work. Alongside this, Anaya has also been putting great effort into improving her handwriting. She is taking more time and care with the presentation of her work, and this improvement has been lovely to see. Thank you for all your hard work this term, Anaya — keep it up!

Year Group	Name	Recognition
Year 4	Scarlet Russ	Every morning when Scarlet enters the classroom she comes in with the most infectious, beaming smile ready to start the day. Scarlet is a very motivated and proactive learner who always shows that she is ready to learn by sitting smartly and having her resources ready. She listens well and challenges herself to achieve her best in every lesson. I have been particularly impressed with Scarlet's writing this term and the attention she has given to improving her descriptive work. Thank you Scarlet for being such a super star and for wowing the class regularly with your violin performances! Well done!
	Parishna Sinha	This term we have been so proud of Parishna's hard work and dedication to her learning. We have noticed how much she has stepped up her effort in her times tables and spellings and her increased contributions to the class. We are so incredibly proud of the progress she has made. Keep up the great work Parishna.
	Evelyn Midlane	Evelyn is the well-deserved star of the term. This term, Evelyn has put tremendous effort into her work and shown real dedication to managing her emotions with thoughtful strategies that help her stay calm and focused. Her growth has been wonderful to watch, and she responds so positively to praise, letting it fuel her confidence and enthusiasm. Evelyn has shown kindness, resilience, and willingness to keep improving make her an wonderful role model for others this term. She has embraced every challenge with courage and determination, proving just how capable she is. This term has truly been her moment to shine! Well done Evelyn!

Year 5	Rowan Parsons	Rowan has shown a fantastic improvement in his effort and positivity towards maths this term. He is now challenging himself and has improved his pace, meaning he is often completing his 'twist its' and 'solve its'. Rowan's focus and participation in class have also improved. He is sharing his ideas and listening carefully to the ideas of others. Keep up the hard work!
	Luca Riselli	Luca, you have had a fantastic term! You have shown enthusiasm and determination in everything you have done, especially during our trip to South Cerney. You always try your best and work hard to achieve tasks set, bringing a smile to everything you do. Your helpful attitude and willingness to support others make you a valued member of the class. Just one more term, then off to Year 6! I'm sure that you'll continue to shine there too! Well done Luca!
	Lawson Howell-Smith	Lawson has had a fantastic term and should be very proud of his achievements. His confidence has grown throughout the whole school setting. He works well with others and consistently shows excellent teamwork skills. His developing oracy skills allow him to share ideas thoughtfully and contribute positively to discussions. He always tries hard to follow the school rules and demonstrates great perseverance when faced with challenges. Keep up the excellent work!

Year 6	Lewis Morgan-Coombs	Lewis, you have had a great term - you should be proud of yourself. Your enthusiasm for learning is clear to see, and you are showing much better focus in class. Your creative and imaginative ideas make your work exciting and enjoyable to read. You have a brilliant sense of humour that makes people smile and brings fun to our classroom. This term, you have shown a more mature attitude and are communicating more appropriately with adults. It has been wonderful to see how much you have grown. Keep up the great work and continue being your enthusiastic, creative self. Well done!
	Sam Swioklo	Sam has grown in confidence this year and this is reflected in his willingness to give new challenges a try. His kind, polite and cheeky demeanour makes everyday a joy. He has a great sense of humour and enjoys engaging in staff jokes - burpees before gardening club! Sam is enthusiastic and hardworking, taking pride in each and every lesson. What brilliant progress you have made this year Sam! Well done.
	Fletcher Wood	I am incredibly proud of Fletch and the progress he has made this year. He has matured significantly and has shown excellent growth in both his effort and attainment across the curriculum. Although he has faced some challenges along the way, Fletch consistently approaches each task with determination and always strives to do his very best. His positive attitude towards learning has been wonderful to see, and he should feel very proud of all he has achieved. Fletcher is also an exceptionally polite, kind, and well-mannered member of the class who is valued greatly by both his peers and teachers. Well done on a brilliant year, Fletch!