

Spring Term 5 - Outstanding Effort Awards

Year Group	Name	Recognition
Reception	Maisie	Maisie has been working so hard this term especially on her writing which has been brilliant. She is so helpful around the classroom and will always offer to help others. She loves learning lots of new things and has been trying her best with all of her activities. Well done Maisie, we are very proud of you!
	Reggie	Reggie is such a kind, caring and super helpful member of class. You always approach activities with a positive attitude and a smile on your face. You are respectful to your friends and all of the grown ups in school. It is so lovely to see your confidence growing and you have been working so hard, especially on your phonics, reading and writing! We are so proud of you, Reggie. Well done!
	Angela	Angela is a happy, chatty, energetic girl, with an infectious smile. She makes everyone feel happy and is a really kind, supportive friend. Angela has settled into Elmbridge seamlessly and is a pleasure to teach. She has developed lots of resilience when things are tricky and has made good progress this year, especially in reading. Well done, Angela.
Year 1	Henry	Henry has tried so hard again this term. He is always ready and respectful and puts his best efforts into all of his pieces of work, even when it might be tricky. His writing is coming on really nicely and he always has some brilliant information to share with us! Keep up the great work Henry!
	Ella	Ella, you have had a great term and we have seen you grow and become much more independent. You have especially enjoyed learning to tell the time in maths and we have noticed the extra effort you have been making in all subjects. The adults in class are very proud of you so well done and keep up the great work!
	Rocco	Rocco is a bright and fun-loving member of class, he is always quick to smile and engage with adults and children around him. He is kind and thoughtful and can always be relied upon to help a friend in need. Rocco has worked hard to focus on his activities and listen to instructions, well done Rocco!

Year Group	Name	Recognition
Year 2	Maisie	We have noticed a big improvement with how much effort Maisie has been putting into all of her work. She has been carefully listening to our instructions about how she could make her work even better and has created lots of amazing things in her books! We are proud of the choices that Maisie is making in class- well done!
	Isla	Isla has worked very hard this term and now shows us what she can do regularly. She participates well in class discussions, especially helping to explain mathematical concepts. Isla is always cheerful in her learning. Well done Isla!
	Charlotte	Charlotte has been working so hard this term, consistently showing she is ready and respectful. She is always one of the first children in the class to show me she is listening and able to follow my instructions. She has shown a more positive attitude, having belief in herself that she can do it! Charlotte is making amazing progress in all aspects of her learning and I really hope this hardworking attitude continues! Well done Charlotte

Year Group	Name	Recognition
Year 3	Aadi	Throughout the year, Aadi has always shown himself to be a great role model to others and fully embraces the school rules of being 'Ready, Respectful, Safe'. Aadi enters the classroom every day with a beaming smile and with a focused attitude towards his learning. He is such a kind and caring friend who I often hear helping others. He also has a great sense of humour which has kept the class smiling and upbeat all year. Thank you Aadi for always trying your best, for loving a challenge and for being a part of our team!
	Eli	The class adults are all impressed with Eli's hard work and enthusiastic approach to all aspects of the Year 3 curriculum. Eli always asks interesting questions and is able to make connections between new topics and things that he already knows. Eli works hard to follow the school rules of being ready, respectful and safe and always tries to be kind and helpful to people in class. Well done, Eli!
	Lea	Lea has been a wonderful member of the class this year. She has always challenged herself to learn more and continues to be determined to succeed. Lea has shown great resilience, learnt from her mistakes and done all of this with a smile. She is a kind, respectful member of the class who has supported others when they have needed it. She has been able to share her ideas with the class and has produced excellent work. We are really proud of Lea for all of her efforts and hope that she continues this for the rest of the year. Thank you Lea, you have been a superstar!

Year Group	Name	Recognition
Year 4	Jacob	Jacob has made huge improvements this term in his attitude to learning and his resilience when things are challenging. He is now demonstrating a brilliant 'Yes I can' attitude not just as a fantastic mathematician, but across the curriculum. In addition to this, he shows an admirable curiosity about the world around him, asks thoughtful questions and shows care towards his friends. Well done Jacob!
	Leo	This term has presented its challenges and it has not been an easy few weeks for you. Despite this, the way you have remained strong, continued to attend school with a smile on your face and try your best in lessons has been remarkable. We are all so proud of how well you are doing and you deserve to be recognised for the fantastic perseverance and determination you have shown. Keep it up, you are doing amazingly.
	Erin	Erin is a conscientious and thoughtful member of the class. She is very caring and mindful of those around her. Erin has been working really hard on joining her handwriting neatly and trying to correct her spellings. Erin has enjoyed our learning this term and has participated in lessons across the curriculum. Keep up the good work Erin!
Year 5	Olivia	Olivia has had a fantastic term! She is focused in all her subjects and I have been particularly impressed with her reading and writing. She has become a passionate and dedicated reader this year. Her love of reading is now starting to shine through in her writing and she is using her vivid imagination to produce some lovely pieces of work. I hope that this continues into year 6 and beyond. Well done Olivia.
	Elaine	Elaine has had an incredible term. She has worked very hard, stayed focused and embraced every opportunity with enthusiasm. In lessons, she has participated in class discussions, worked well with others and has completed tasks at a high standard. At South Cerney, she got involved in everything and listened well to instructions given. Keep up the amazing positive attitude!
	Callum	Callum has shown outstanding energy this term, always giving 100% effort and encouraging those around him. He has grown in confidence, beginning to contribute more thoughtfully in class discussions. He is a kind and reliable friend and has shown real perseverance in his learning. Callum demonstrates good teamwork skills, showing cooperation, and a 'can do' attitude in group activities. Well done, Callum – your hard work and determination have really shone!

Year 6	Enid	Over this academic year, Enid has demonstrated a maturing attitude towards her learning and with her responses when feeling under pressure. She has shown courage and resilience when faced with difficult situations. Her sense of humour and fun has been a pleasure to experience and her eloquence when expressing herself has blossomed. Keep up the good work Enid, we're very proud of you.
	Irene	Mrs Davies and I have recognised that Irene has been an exceptionally hard-working member of class all year. She is constantly smiling and takes every lesson in her stride. Although English is not her first language, she strives to do her best and challenges herself to overcome obstacles that this presents. Her warm-hearted nature is evident through her positivity and can-do attitude. Well done Irene – you are a superstar!
	Tom	Tom has been an outstanding member of the class this term. He consistently demonstrates kindness, care, and thoughtfulness towards both his peers and staff. He has impeccable manners. His hardworking attitude and quiet determination ensure he gives his best in everything he does. Tom always models the school values by being ready to learn, respectful of others, and making safe and sensible choices at all times. He is a good role model to his peers. He is conscientious, reliable, and mature. Well done for a fantastic term, Tom.