

Elmbridge Primary School Newsletter 2nd December 2022

Dear Parents & Carers

I would like to thank you all for your support in attending the recent parent consultations and, hopefully, you found them useful. If your child's class teacher was ill during any of the consultations, they will be in touch to re-arrange another meeting as soon as possible.

We had an incredibly successful Christmas Fayre, organised by the PTA and it was great to see so many parents supporting the school at this event. I hope the children are looking forward to the Christmas parties planned next week; please double check the last page of this newsletter to ensure you have the right dates.

Finally, now we're getting into the colder months, please encourage your child to bring a coat to school. We would also welcome hats, gloves and scarves (named please!) but we do not want balaclavas in school.

There will be one final newsletter of the term on Friday 16th December, where we will let you know the children who have been recognised for their outstanding effort for this term. Each child will receive an Elmbridge Primary School award (teddy bear on the infant site and school mug on the junior site) and certificate.

Have a lovely weekend and best wishes.

Glen Tharia—Head Teacher

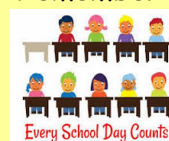

Online Safety

- Have you linked your credit or debit card to a game your child plays or an app that they use?
- Have you set boundaries of how much they are allowed to spend?
- Have you set a spend limit on the account?
- Have you set a password to limit their access?
