

Autumn Term 2 - Outstanding Effort Awards

Year Group	Name	Recognition
Reception	Declan	Declan has worked so hard this term, we have been so impressed with his super singing during our nativity performances. He tries his best in absolutely everything he does and does everything with a smile on his face. Declan is always ready, respectful and safe and is an excellent role model to others. We are very proud of you Declan, well done!
	Rupert	For being such a kind and helpful member of Hedgehogs class. You are always respectful to your friends and all of the grown ups in school. It is so lovely to see your confidence growing and you have been working hard all term, especially on your phonics, reading and writing. We are so proud of you, Rupert. Well done!
	George	George is a kind, thoughtful, respectful member of Rabbits class, who always works hard and tries his best. He is always ready to learn and likes to help around the classroom. George also enjoys helping others and is a very kind friend. He always listens carefully, and has made great progress this term. We have especially enjoyed listening to George's beautiful singing, which hasn't gone unnoticed! You are a superstar, George. Well done!
Year 1	Arabella	Arabella has really grown in confidence this term. We are so proud of the way that she always stands up to give her answers to the class and gets on straight away with her work when she goes to her table. She has marvellous manners and can always be relied upon to be ready, respectful, and safe. Arabella, you are a pleasure to have in class. Keep up the fantastic work!
	Charlie	Congratulations Charlie! We have been very impressed with your amazing attitude to learning. You always listen carefully and try to do your best, even when the learning is tricky. We are really proud of the effort you give. Keep it up!
	Thea	Thea is a kind and extremely helpful member of class! She is always ready respectful and safe and can be relied upon to sensible, even if those around her may not be. Her confidence has grown hugely since September and it is a pleasure to see her working and playing with her friends in class. Well done Thea!

Year 2	Samanvi	Samanvi has had a great start to Year 2 and should be very proud of her achievements. She consistently puts a great deal of effort into her work and always tries her best. Her positive attitude towards learning helps to approach new tasks with enthusiasm and determination. Samanvi is a kind and caring member of the class. She is always willing to help others. She is a supportive and thoughtful friend, and her kindness helps create a happy and welcoming classroom environment.
	Aria	Aria has worked super hard this term in all areas of her learning. She has shown an excellent 'have a go' attitude and not given up, even when she has found the learning difficult. Aria is always keen to help others and will put a smile on the face of anyone who is feeling sad. She is a pleasure to have in class and we are all looking forward to watching her continue to flourish and develop next term. Well done, Aria! Keep up the good work.
	Amelia	We have been so pleased with Amelia's progress this term. She is always trying her best and has produced some lovely work, especially in English. Her art work has been so creative and we look forward to seeing what she makes next. It has also been a joy to see how Amelia is always ready to learn and is a role model for others in our class. Well done Amelia, keep up the good work!

Year 3	Evie	The class adults have been impressed by Evie's fantastic 'have a go' attitude to learning. Evie is working particularly hard with her reading, phonics and writing and even when Evie finds things tricky, she always tries hard and doesn't give up. She approaches every task with a smile on her face. Evie is a kind, gentle and polite member of class. Well done Evie!
	Alexander	Alex has had a wonderful term in year 3. He has shown desire, a willingness to learn from his mistakes and pushed himself to be the best that he can be. He is a polite, friendly and caring member of the class. He has been dedicated to improving his timestables and ensuring that he is supporting others when he can. Alex has shown an amazing understanding in all lessons that we have completed this term. He is showing more confidence to 'stand and deliver' which has had a positive contribution to others understanding their learning. It has been fantastic to see Alex develop throughout this term and we hope this continues throughout the rest of year 3. Well done Alex and thank you for all your effort!
	Thea	Thea is an absolute pleasure to have in class and has truly shone this term. Thea has always loved learning, but this term her enthusiasm and determination to do her very best in everything she does have really stood out. She is such a fantastic role model, always having a positive attitude and being ready to learn. She always completes her work to such a high standard that she can be proud of. We feel incredibly lucky to teach such a hardworking, kind, and enthusiastic student. Well done Thea!

Year 4	Lilly	Lilly has really impressed all of the adults in Year 4 this term. It has been wonderful to see Lilly grow in confidence and share her ideas with the rest of the class. I was so proud of Lilly delivering her lines in the Christmas production in front of such large audiences! Lilly is always polite, kind and respectful to everyone she meets, which makes her a wonderful role model. She consistently puts lots of effort into her work and takes pride in doing her best. Lilly often has a smile on her face and helps to create a positive and happy learning environment. She should be extremely proud of herself. Well done Lilly!
	Darcey	Darcey, you come to school every day with a positive attitude and a huge smile on your face. We have loved seeing your confidence grow this term and have no doubt that you will continue to shine as the year goes on. Thank you for being a fantastic listener, an enthusiastic and hard-working learner and a wonderful friend to others. You are always so polite to everyone and are also incredibly kind and thoughtful. Keep up the brilliant work! We are SO proud of you.
	Thea	Thea has worked incredibly hard this term. She has such a bubbly character and a great sense of humour; she makes members of Class 10 smile and giggle daily! It has been lovely to see Thea's confidence, both personally and academically, shine through more this term especially in her role in the Year 4 production of 'Aladdin Trouble'. Thea is curious and asks questions to further her learning which has helped her to make good progress. She has worked incredibly hard to develop her rapid recall of times tables and her enthusiasm and determination for this has encouraged others to do the same. I can't wait to see how she continues with this next term. Thank you Thea for being such a star!
Year 5	Cami	Cami consistently shows kindness and respect towards others in our class and is always willing to help. This term Cami has shown a fantastic improvement in her attitude to learning, especially in maths. As a result of this, her confidence has also improved and she is now more willing to take part in class discussions and share her ideas with her peers. This is great to see and I'm sure her confidence will continue to grow next term. Keep up the hard work Cami!
	Seren	Seren, you have made wonderful progress in maths this term. I've noticed a real improvement in your focus during lessons, and your enthusiasm for learning is a joy to see. You approach challenges with a strong growth mindset and are always willing to try new strategies. Your understanding of new concepts is growing, and your confidence in applying them continues to develop. Keep up the fantastic work!

	Archie	Archie, you have shown great progress this term by being more focused in lessons and by confidently asking me for support when you need it. This has led to a clear improvement in your writing, with stronger ideas and presentation. It has also been lovely to see your increased enthusiasm in other subjects, particularly history and science. You especially loved the history trip to the Black County Living Museum. I am very proud of your increased effort.

Year 6	Ted	At the start of the year, Ted showed a good attitude to his learning. He tried hard, listened carefully, and wanted to do well. However, there were times when the work felt tricky and the challenge could have been a reason to give up. Instead, he chose to keep going. As the year has gone on, his effort has gone from good to truly excellent. He now approaches tasks with confidence, perseverance, and is beginning to have a real belief in himself. Even when something feels difficult, he doesn't shy away — he asks questions, accepts support, and gives his very best every single time. Ted's progress hasn't just been in his work, but in his attitude. He has shown maturity, resilience, and a willingness to challenge himself, in all that he does, both in and outside of school. Well done — you should be incredibly proud of yourself, we are!
	Elsie	Elsie has truly impressed us this term with her consistent enthusiasm and excellent effort in all areas of her learning. She approaches new challenges with a positive attitude and always tries her very best, which is lovely to see. Elsie is also a kind and thoughtful member of the class, showing genuine care and respect towards her peers and the adults who work with her. She is always willing to help others and sets a wonderful example through her considerate and friendly nature.
	Jorge	Jorge is always a joy to teach and he tries his best each and every day. Not only is he hardworking; he regularly goes above and beyond to help his peers and the year 6 staff. Jorge is polite and well-mannered; he always listens respectfully to those around him and this makes him a fantastic friend too. His positivity and can do attitude is infectious and I cannot wait to see what he can achieve in year 6. Keep up the fantastic work Jorge, you are a superstar!
